MVD510PRE: COUNTRYSIDE ADVENTURES AT BALCON DEL ABRA - NOVEMBER 11, 2021 | $1,599pp

3 DAYS / 2 NIGHTS | MEAL: YES

Start your holiday early by spending three marvelous days enjoying the Uruguayan countryside and several adventure and leisure activities.

Located amidst the hills of Uruguay's Lavalleja Department and 114 miles from the capital Montevideo, El Balcon del Abra offers unique landscapes, superb comfort, and the charm of a small posada with only eight rooms. A stay here combines fun experiences that have you rediscovering nature and enjoying the best of rural tourism in Uruguay.

Day 1 - Arriving in Montevideo, you will transfer directly from the airport to El Balcon del Abra, nestled in a well-kept, park-like setting, surrounded by trees and an unspoiled natural landscape. After checking-in, get ready for your first activity, a wonderful horseback ride through the countryside. The inn has a well-trained herd of American Quarter Horses and different types of saddles to fit every rider's needs. Your horse and the route you will take will be determined by your size and skill level. Guided by expert horsemen, it’s the perfect way to relax and enjoy the scenic countryside. When your ride ends, bid farewell to your equine friend and head back to the main house where there are ample and inviting spaces to relax alone or in the company of your fellow guests. The comfortable and welcoming lounge with its eye-catching fireplace, features a large satellite TV and a corner with a panoramic window, invites you to contemplate the landscape, read or share moments that you might remember forever. If you wish to pamper yourself and complete your well-being, book an optional massage which in good weather, can be provided outdoors in the shade of a tree while you can listen to the sounds of nature all around you.

At mealtime, you will be treated to delicious homemade food produced with organic produce from the garden and accompanied by excellent wines. There is also a covered barbecue area that offers the possibility of cooking outdoors.

Day 2 - Following a restful night in your comfortable accommodations, enjoy a hearty breakfast before preparing for your Day 2 activities. You can choose between mountain biking or trekking (or if you prefer, just spend the day hanging out and relaxing at the inn). The topography of the area offers ideal roads, paths, and circuits for exhilarating mountain biking. There are trails for every skill level and your expert guides who are intimately familiar with the area will help determine the best routes. Should you choose the option of trekking, there are also a number of trails that vary in difficulty. From easy with no climbing, to more challenging. The choice is yours and whichever you choose, amazing views and the possibility of observing some of the local wildlife in their natural habitat await.

In the afternoon, perhaps take a dip in the large “Biotop” ecological pool that was built with the intent of offering the possibility of swimming in a totally natural environment. Tables of varying sizes are available for you to have lunch or a snack outdoors if you like.

If you are still looking for more activities, there is 200-yard golf driving range which is free to players with their own equipment (clubs are available for rent). Lessons are also available for an additional fee. And if you are still craving more action, there is an optional tandem paragliding adventure you can sign-up for (cost is approximately $100 per person).

Day 3 - Your final day starts early with breakfast and then a terrific canoe ride on the Aigua River. Drink in the peaceful nature of the river's environs as your canoe slides through the quiet waters. Be assured your rowing is always done with a guide, safety equipment and radio communication. Along the way, do some fishing and then pause for a picnic lunch at one of the small hidden beaches alongside the river.

After your canoe trip, return to the inn where you will gather your belongings and bid farewell to your hosts. Then board the transfer back to Montevideo where you will embark the ship, no doubt filled with memories of a wonderfully authentic Uruguayan countryside experience.

This fantastic adventure offers the unique opportunity of exploring the equestrian culture and traditions of the Argentinean Pampas, followed by a magical stay in a lodge located on the Patagonian Steppe, one of the great natural wonders of Argentina.

Day 1 - Upon the ship’s arrival in Buenos Aires, debark and enjoy a half-day city tour of Buenos Aires, seeing many of its marquee highlights. After a stop for coffee, you will head out to Puesto Viejo, a marvelous estancia located in the countryside approximately one hour from Buenos Aires. Here in the midst of vast fertile lands, you will find the home of the gauchos. There are few people in Argentina that are as romanticized as the gaucho, a rugged nomadic man who shuns modern city living for a simpler existence. However, while the setting is decided natural and relaxing, this estancia is anything but simple.

On arrival, check-in to your accommodation, a delightfully well-appointed African-style tent that features beds with comfortable linens, carpet, a bedside table, towels, and a full private bathroom. Shortly after arrival, lunch will be served and afterwards, you’ll have the afternoon at leisure. Perhaps sit back and soak in the peaceful ambience of this marvelous estancia or take part in one of the daily activities that include a shared horse-back ride, exploring the pine tree labyrinth or doing a walk-about. Dinner this night is a barbeque held at the camp, complete with a lively folkloric performance. Later, relax around the campfire and get to know your fellow travelers before retiring to your tent for the night.

Day 2 – Start your day with an early breakfast and then head to the stables. One of the experienced staff will share with you how they take care of the prized polo and jumping horses that are kept here and then later, it’s your turn for a riding lesson. Whether you are a beginner or intermediate rider, by the end of the activity you will be cantering comfortably with good balance, good position and most importantly, be in total control of your horse. For experienced riders, there are different styles and breeds of native horses that will enhance your experience and you will be given the opportunity to switch horses with the instructor if you like. Following your ride, return to the ranch for lunch and have the afternoon to again do as you please. Continue with another horseback ride, go swimming at the clubhouse, go biking or birdwatching if you like. The day ends with another barbeque dinner at the camp and a final night in your tent accommodation.

Day 3 – Following an early breakfast, you will check-out and transfer to the airport in Buenos Aires where you will board a flight to Trelew. Upon arrival, you will be greeted and then make the 2.5-hour drive to the El Pedral Lodge, enjoying a boxed lunch en route. The lodge is located on the Patagonian Steppe in Punta Ninfas, which is part of the UNESCO biosphere reserve. Built in 1923, it’s an original Patagonian farmhouse and its interesting history and collectibles on display, make it pretty much a museum itself. Part of a unique landscape of endless pebbled shoreline, high cliffs, and fauna native to the area, it invites guests to unwind and immerse themselves in the Patagonian experience. After check-in, the afternoon is at your leisure and you can take a swim in the pool, go bike riding, visit the penguin colony, explore on foot, or simply find a quiet nook and catch up on your reading. Dinner this evening is served in a family-style atmosphere and later, you’re invited to sit by the fire with your fellow guests and reflect on the amazing experience you’ve had so far before retiring for the evening.

Day 4 – After breakfast, drive to the viewpoint of Punta Ninfas and spend time watching the colony of elephant seals, and then head over to the penguin colony. Have fun seeing up-close the Magellanic penguins that make their home here and if you are lucky, you might catch sight of a Southern Right Whale. After approximately three hours, return to the lodge for a barbeque lamb lunch and then it’s time to check-out and transfer to the port in Puerto Madryn where you will rejoin the ship.

Rejoin ship in Puerto Madryn on November 15.

Special Note: This tour includes several days of activities that can range from mild to vigorous, primarily at the guests’ discretion. Satisfy your craving for adventure by jumping out of a plane and experiencing an exhilarating 45-second freefall.

Leonardo Da Vinci once said, “Once you’ve tasted flight, you’ll walk forever on Earth with your eyes turned skyward, for there you have been, and there you will always long to return.” Perhaps no truer words were spoken for those who have experienced the thrill of sky diving.

Your adventure kicks off with a scenic two-hour drive to the SkyDive Center in Chascomús. On arrival, meet with your instructor and receive a safety briefing, instructions, and an overview of what to expect. Then it’s time to board your plane and take flight. When your plane reaches an altitude of approximately 10,000 feet, you will be strapped to your instructor and then with heart-pounding, step out into the open air.

As you drop away from the plane, the air envelopes you and you might not be sure if the exhilaration you are feeling is from the adrenaline of having just jumped from a plane, or the expansive views of the city of Chascomús and the Argentine Pampas spread out below you. Once deployed, your rate of descent slows and you are able to catch your breath and absorb the experience as you float back to earth. Upon landing, emotions of sheer joy and a sense of having conquered this adventure will no doubt mingle with your sense of relief at being back on terra firma!

Following your jump, enjoy a snack at the SkyDive Center before commencing the drive back to the port.

BUE301: TANGO SHOW AT EL GRAN CAFÉ TORTONI - NOVEMBER 12, 2021 | $99

- ACTIVITY LEVEL: MILD
- TIME: 2 HOURS | MEAL: NONE

Tango – the sensual dance that represents the image and character of Buenos Aires. Come experience this beloved form of dance at the historic El Gran Café Tortonii.

Born in Argentina, the Tango is known and loved all around the world, but before it reached success, it was banned for its sensuality and passion. In the late 19th century when the “Great Village of Buenos Aires” was becoming a fast-growing immigrant city, frustrated and melancholic Europeans gradually were displacing the gaucho rustics who began retreating to the countryside. The children of the immigrants would become the first generation of porteños and the tango-song summarized the city’s new urban style. Infused with nostalgia over a disappearing way of life, the tango expressed the apprehensions and anxieties of individuals as it related to the changing landscape of community, betrayal, friendship, and other personal concerns.

Board your transportation at the pier and drive to the historic El Gran Café, the oldest coffee shop in the entire country that was founded in 1858. Over the years, it has been visited not just by the average citizens of Buenos Aires but also by intellectuals, politicians, and artists. After arrival, be seated and get ready to enjoy a traditional Tango performance while sipping on a complimentary beverage. As you watch this amazingly intricate dance, you will feel like you have been transported back to a bygone era, filled with passion and emotion.

Following what is sure to be an unforgettable experience, re-board your coach and travel back to the pier.

Special Note: This tour is primarily seated with a minimal amount of walking/standing. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. We recommend comfortable clothing and flat walking shoes.

BUE303: THE MARQUEE HIGHLIGHTS OF BUENOS AIRES - NOVEMBER 12, 2021 | $49 pp

Become acquainted with Buenos Aires on this primarily panoramic tour that highlights the city’s major neighborhoods but is also punctuated with stops at some of its most iconic attractions.

Board your coach at the pier and head to the La Boca neighborhood. When immigrants began arriving in large numbers to Argentina, many of the older houses became conventillos, tenements that housed European families that were cramped, divided quarters with inadequate sanitary facilities. Despite its unpleasant past, today La Boca is Buenos Aires most colorful neighborhood, in large part due to its brightly painted houses and corrugated tin roofs. Continue from here to Plaza de Mayo where you will find important public buildings such as the Cabildo (traditional city hall), the Metropolitan Cathedral, San Telmo and Casa Rosada, the rose-colored Presidential Palace that sits along the riverbank where the early colonial fortifications once stood.

One of the most notable areas you will visit is La Recoleta, perhaps the most fashionable area in Buenos Aires and best known for the La Recoleta Cemetery which is where Eva Perón is buried. After your visit here, see the colonial church - Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Pilar and then pass traditional cafés and restaurants. Before returning to the pier, your route will take you through the trendy Palermo neighborhood.

Special Note: This tour includes approximately one hour of mild to moderate walking/standing that includes some steps. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the transportation, negotiate the steps and have a companion to assist them. We recommend wearing weather appropriate comfortable clothing; sturdy, flat walking shoes; a sun cap; sunglasses and sunscreen.
Discover the charming ambience of Buenos Aires’ markets, all found within the most well-known areas of the city.

Embark your coach at the pier and travel first to the La Boca neighborhood which is literally Buenos Aires’ most colorful barrio. Settled and built by Italian immigrants along the Riachuelo River, the houses here are brightly painted with corrugated metal roofs. Along the popular pedestrian walkway of Caminito, you will find local artists selling their works and at the end of the street is a delightful handicraft market.

Continue to the barrio of San Telmo, a true artist’s quarter where local bohemians find large spaces in which to work and low rents. Along with being the oldest district of Buenos Aires, it is also one of the best kept. While here, take time to stroll around Plaza Dorrego where amongst its colonial buildings you can find numerous antique and handicraft shops along with galleries, where you can purchase a memento of your visit.

From here, make your way to Recoleta, one of the city’s most fashionable districts. Stop at the El Ateneo Grand Splendid Bookshop, considered one of the most beautiful bookshops in the world. This marvelous building was once an historic theater and it has retained its original frescoed ceilings, ornate theater boxes, elegant, rounded balconies, ornate trappings, and plush red stage curtains. It remains as stunning today as when it was first envisioned by its architects. Now used as an extraordinary book and music shop, over a million people walk through its doors each year. When your visit comes to a close, you will transfer directly back to the port.

Special Note: This tour includes just over two hours of mild to moderate walking/standing that includes some steps and cobblestone surfaces. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and is not considered suitable for those with other mobility issues. We recommend wearing weather appropriate comfortable clothing; flat walking or sport shoes with a non-slip sole; a sun cap; sunglasses and sunscreen.

Those looking for a relaxing respite will find this leisurely cruise through the waters of the Tigre Delta the perfect choice.

Travel north from the pier along a scenic route to the Tigre River. Along the way pass narrow, tree-lined streets of residential neighborhoods, yacht clubs and mansions. Before arriving at the river terminal, a pause for photos will be made at the Tigre Art Museum.

For more than one hundred years, the maze of rivers and channels of the Tigre Delta have been a favorite weekend getaway for porteños, the residents of Buenos Aires. Arriving at the dock, embark your river boat for a tranquil tour exploring the green labyrinth of the river’s channels, streams and lush green islands. Your river route is interspersed with views of beautiful riverside villas, Victorian docks, English gardens and traditional rowing and boating clubs.

After approximately one hour on the water, you will return to the pier and then board your coach for the return drive to the pier.

Special Note: This tour has a moderate amount of walking that includes standing on uneven, natural terrain. There are stairs to negotiate in order to board the boat. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not suitable for those with limited mobility or walking difficulties. Those who suffer from motion sickness are cautioned to take the appropriate precautions. We recommend wearing weather appropriate comfortable clothing; flat sport shoes with a non-slip sole; sun cap; sunglasses; sunscreen and insect repellent.

Travel back in time to 1982 and visit the historical battlefield sites of the war with Argentina.

On April 2, 1982, the Falkland Islands were invaded by Argentine troops and thus began the conflict that lasted 74 days until the Argentine surrender on June 14th. During this tour, you will visit notable sites related to that conflict and hear about how the conflict culminated with the arrival of British forces at San Carlos. Sadly, the conflict resulted in the deaths of 649 Argentine military personnel, 255 British military personnel and 3 Falkland Island residents.

Meet your guide at the Jetty Visitors Center and board your coach, travelling west from Port Stanley to the epicenter of where the main battles were fought. En route enjoy beautiful panoramas that include famous Boot Hill and the wind turbines that supply the capital with up to 40 percent of its energy requirements. During the drive, your guide will share with you the sequence of events that led up to the conflict.

Your first stop is at Estancia Farm which became a base for hundreds of British troops in June 1982. A large contingent of local men and women went to the farm to help look after the troops, even using their personal off-road driving skills to help move munitions under the cover of darkness up the mountainsides. While here, enjoy views to the west while your guide explains about the famous “yomp” and the battle for Goose Green. Next, head east back towards Stanley and hear how the British forces moved forward and positioned themselves throughout the surrounding mountains.

Before returning to the jetty, two additional stops are made, one at the site of the wreckage of Chinook and Puma aircraft that were shot down, and one at a location that overlooks Stanley and five battle sites.

Special Note: This tour is primarily seated with some short stops; however, there will be uneven ground at the stops. Jeep safari ride will be bumpy and over off-road tracks. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the transportation and have a companion to assist them. The tour may occasionally go off the track so those who suffer from motion sickness are cautioned to take the appropriate precautions prior to the start of the tour. We recommend wearing weather appropriate comfortable clothing that includes a sweater or jacket and flat walking shoes with a non-slip sole.
Experience authentic Falkland Island farm life on this experience that visits Long Island Farm, a traditional 23,000-acre sheep farm.

Join your guide on the pier and make the picturesque drive out to Long Island Farm. The farm belongs to the Watson's, a sixth-generation Falkland Island family who still live and farm in completely traditional Falkland style. The family farms using skilled sheep dogs and Falkland Island bred horses. Not only do they milk their own cows, make their own bread, butter, and cream, they even still use peat for fuel, a tradition that has nearly died out in the Falklands.

Arriving at the farm, your gracious hosts will welcome you and your tour begins with a rare opportunity to see a peat cutting demonstration while learning the history of peat and its influence on Falkland life. Next, there will be a demonstration of sheep work using skilled sheepdogs, followed by a sheep shearing. Your final demonstration is a horse-gearing display which explains the various gear and how the farm uses the horses in their work.

If you have worked up an appetite by now, join Mrs. Watson in the farmhouse kitchen for a delicious spread of tea, coffee, home-baked cookies, and other treats. Afterwards, feel free to stroll around the farm or along the white sandy beach directly in front of the house.

After approximately two hours at the farm, you will re-board your transportation (probably reluctantly), and travel back to the jetty in Stanley.

Special Note: This tour includes approximately two hours of mild to moderate walking/standing that includes some steps and negotiating natural and uneven surfaces. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with other mobility issues or walking difficulties. We recommend wearing warm, waterproof comfortable clothing; flat walking or sport shoes with a closed toe; a sun cap; sunglasses, sunscreen; insect repellent.

What better way to get out in nature and stretch your legs than with an exhilarating hike around the natural beauty of Whalebone Cove. Geared for nature enthusiasts and those with a penchant for the outdoors, this tour provides an exclusive opportunity to view the diverse wildlife and flora of the Falkland Islands.

Meet your guide at the Jetty Visitors Center and then travel by minibus to nearby Whalebone Cove where your guided walk will begin. The walk covers 3.5 miles and is conducted at a brisk pace. Along the way, your expert guide will provide a general background on Falkland wildlife and what you might expect to see on this tour. They will also distribute a special tour specific illustrated tour checklist for your easy reference.

During your walk around the rugged coastline, breathe in the refreshing sea air and enjoy views of the cove and its surrounding landscape, which includes seeing the wreck of the Lady Elizabeth that is partially submerged in the bay.

After approximately 2.5 hours, you will meet up with your minibus and transfer back to the Jetty Visitors Center.

Special Note: This tour includes approximately 2.5 hours of moderate to vigorous walking that includes negotiating natural rocky and uneven surfaces. Portions of the trail may be slippery when wet. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, those with physical limitations or other medical limitations such as heart, respiratory, back or neck problems. Participants should be in good physical condition. We recommend wearing weather appropriate comfortable clothing, flat walking or sport shoes with a closed toe and non-slip sole.
No visit to the Falkland Islands is complete without seeing penguins. This tour lets you get up-close and personal with the charismatic Rockhopper penguins, the Falkland Island's smallest breed of penguin.

From the jetty, travel by minibus over an un-surfaced road out to the Murrell Farm. On arrival, transfer to a comfortable 4X4 vehicle and embark on an exciting one-hour off-road experience over a rolling peat moor to reach the colony. Waiting for you is the remarkable experience of being in the midst of hundreds of Rockhopper penguins in their natural environment. And what an environment it is with stunning views of Berkeley Sound in the background. Spend approximately one hour here at your leisure observing the penguins and taking some incredible photos. Surprisingly, despite their small size, they are known for being able to hop up steep cliffs with both of their feet together. To enhance your visit, a warden is permanently based at the site to answer any questions you may have.

While the setting is definitely rural, for your comfort and convenience, there are portable toilets and a small cabin that serves tea, coffee, and homemade cakes and cookies. There are also some locally crafted souvenirs for sale.

When your visit comes to a close, retrace your steps back to Stanley.

Special Note: This tour includes approximately two hours of mild to moderate walking/standing that includes some steps and negotiating natural and uneven surfaces. There will be two hours of off-road travel in a 4X4 which can be bumpy and jarring at times. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, those with mobility issues or medical limitations such as heart, respiratory, back, hip or neck problems, or pregnant women. We recommend wearing warm, waterproof comfortable clothing; flat walking or sport shoes with a closed toe; a sun cap; sunglasses and sunscreen.

Head out to nearby Newans Station to mingle with their colony of Gentoo penguins, enjoying a short off-road adventure on the way.

The tour is perfectly designed to take only small groups of visitors at a time, making your experience more intimate and memorable. Begin by meeting your minibus and guide at the Jetty Visitor Center and make the 15-minute trip to nearby Newans Station. On arrival, meet your 4X4 driver and climb aboard for the 15-minute off-road drive to the Gentoo colony. On the way, your driver will share with you some interesting history about the Falklands and the local way of life here. Arriving at the site, enjoy 45-minutes here interacting with the approximately 200 breeding pairs that inhabit the colony. These charismatic creatures known for their flamboyant orange-red beaks are also the world’s fastest underwater bird, reaching speeds up to 22 mph.

Special Note: This tour includes approximately 45 minutes of mild to moderate walking/standing that includes some steps (a large one to enter and exit the 4X4) and negotiating natural and uneven surfaces. There will be 30 minutes of off-road travel in a 4X4 which can be bumpy and jarring at times. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, those with mobility issues or medical limitations such as heart, respiratory, back, hip or neck problems, or pregnant women. We recommend wearing warm, waterproof comfortable clothing; flat walking or sport shoes with a closed toe; a sun cap; sunglasses and sunscreen.

Arriving at the Jetty Visitors Center you will meet your guide and board your transportation. As you head out along Ross Road, Stanley’s main street that runs along the seafront, your guide will point out points of interest. Your route takes you past the Cathedral with its Whale Bone Arch, the 1982 Battle Memorial, wrecks of old sailing ships, a private whalebone display, the Stanley Airport, the hospital, the Government House, and some of Stanley’s original houses. Stops for photos will be made at several locations such as the Mizzen Mast from the famous SS Great Britain. Commentary from your guide will give you additional insight into the Falkland’s Heritage, social habits, and economy. Designed to give visitors an idea of local daily life in this rugged, remote but beautiful location, this tour truly delivers.

Just outside of town, you’ll be treated to a stunning view of Stanley from the bottom of the harbor and the shipwreck of the Lady Elizabeth. You might also catch a glimpse of an Upland Goose or a Flightless Steamer duck.
